GREAT WALDINGFIELD PARISH COUNCIL NEWSLETTER

Issue 2

July 2013

Commemorating the Queen's Diamond Jubilee

Gt Waldingfield Horticultural Show Committee, GWPC and local businesses are holding a competition to design a garden that appeals to young and old alike. The winning design will be built in the playing field and be a permanent commemoration of the Queen's Diamond Jubilee.

The design should consider children, the elderly, those with disabilities, prams, pushchairs and wheelchairs and be no more than 30 meters by 20 meters. Closing date for entries is Monday 19th August 2013.

If you would like further information please contact Chris Francis on 01787 370734 or John Hughes on 01787 378342.

Suffolk Village of the Year 2013

GWPC has just been advised that Great Waldingfield was runner-up to Brantham in the Babergh section of the competition. The Parish Council is extremely grateful for all the help that village organizations' gave in preparing the portfolio for the entry and attending the meeting with the judging team.

Without all your help we would not have put in such a fine portfolio of achievements for the judges to consider.
